COURSE INFORMATION

This course is designed to empower you to gain the required knowledge to succeed in your new business venture. This course will help you to apply basic poultry production skills to your farm. Running a chicken farm requires more than just agricultural know-how. If you want to be a chicken farmer, you must think like a businessperson while growing your brand. Choosing a focus, establishing a brand, raising your chickens, and building your business are all part of chicken farming. Then, as your farm grows, you'll be able to market, finance, and network to grow your business. This course will help you to understand how to achieve just that.
